Food for Thought

At Old Monterey Café, every meal is cooked to order. While we make every effort to deliver all meals within minutes of each other, we will not jeopardize the quality of an item by holding it beneath a heat lamp until the entire order is ready.

Ultimately, our goal is your satisfaction. We are committed to delivering quality in both our food and our service. We welcome your questions and comments.

Need Help?

Our service staff is trained to work as a team in order to better serve you. You'll often find more than one wait-person attending your table. When any item is ready, the closest available person will serve you. If you have a question, a concern, or simply need additional help, just ask anyone! Any member of our service team will be happy to assist you! Please let us know if you have any special dietary concerns; our staff will be glad to customize any order for you.

Thank you ...

A sincere thank you to all our local patrons who have been with us through the years. You have seen our business and family grow. Because of you, Old Monterey Café has become the success that it is today! Thank you for your smiles, patronage, and patience through all the years. We could not have done it without you.
